Point of Personal Privilege: Rev. Erin Beall on General Conference

“Point of Personal Privilege!” This was one of the phrases that rang out in the Portland Convention Center many times every day last week during the General Conference of the United Methodist Church. Following Robert’s Rules of Order, delegates and leaders from every jurisdiction and conference of the UMC around the world called out “Points of Order,” “Points of Inquiry,” motions, and speeches as they tried to make decisions that would carry the church forward in faithfulness and unity. So here is my Point of Personal Privilege—that is, here’s my take on what I experienced at General Conference. I went with the Lilly Foundation, who arranged and paid for this trip for me and seven other Western North Carolina young clergy, so that we might bear witness to and learn from this quadrennial event. Our experiences ran the gamut of General Conference: we sat through frankly boring legislation, we cried and rejoiced during powerful sermons, and we lifted our earnest prayers as tensions rose and sensitive buttons were pushed.

Issues ranged from the Mission Statement of the UMC, to human sexuality, to diversity on our international Boards and Agencies. As you may read on social media, umc.org, or even the New York Times, debates became heated and emotional around some of these issues, and rumors flew about schism. What would it mean if the United Methodist Church decided no longer to be so “united”? At one point, watching from the bleachers as the delegates split grimly into various factions during a recess, a friend whispered anxiously to me, “Is this it? Are we looking at the end of the UMC as we know it—right here, right now?”

I am happy to report that I do not share my colleague’s disillusionment. While I am not naïve enough to think that schism is impossible, I believe that God is big enough to hold us all, even in division. It is even possible, I believe, that a reordering of our global denomination may aid our mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ!

I left General Conference with a simultaneous feeling of joy and anxiety. I was thrilled to bear witness to the diverse and beautiful preaching, worship, and community represented in Portland. Yet my heart also wept with the passionate protestors and delegates who advocated for the rights of marginalized people. Overall, I left with the genuine belief that God has not abandoned—and will not abandon—the UMC; the Holy Spirit was present at General Conference. We can be assured that the Holy Spirit goes with us into this new quadrennium. Thanks be to God!

From Study to Ministry: Bead-Making

Miriam Ward led a study on the spiritual discipline of prayer bead-making during the Easter season, and it was so well-received that it had to be extended! Now, the group has decided to turn the study into a ministry of the church, making prayer beads and instructional cards to be given out by the pastoral caregivers of the church. The group will meet on the third Wednesday of each month (July excluded). This first meeting will be a covered dish supper on June 15 from 6:30-8:00 pm at Bonnie Odom's house (1726 Ternberry Rd). If you are interested in joining this group, please contact Miriam Ward at 336-882-4629 or Bonnie Odom at 336-259-1941!

Media Center

A team of folks have been working in the Media Center for several months. They have sorted through all the books and have removed duplicates and outdated books. They are re-arranging the existing books and cataloging them in a more user-friendly system. We are grateful to Patricia Nash, who is heading up this project and to her team: Dick Brewer, Betsy Hodge, Jane Blackwell, Lucille Duncan, Carolyn Steed, Dwight Steed, and Skip Nash.

Efird on Psalms

During the summer months the Aldersgate Miller Memorial Class will be looking at the Book of Psalms. They will be using video and discussion material prepared by Dr. Mickey Efird. The Class invites any interested persons and/or other adult classes to join them for this study beginning on June 19. The Aldersgate Miller Memorial Class meets in the Adult Education Building and the class begins at 9:45 am each Sunday.

Jared Stine to be ordained June 17

Friends-I'm excited to share with you that I will be ordained as an Elder in the United Methodist Church on June 17 in my home annual conference of Eastern Pennsylvania. I've been on a twelve year journey toward this moment in my calling, and I invite you to share this time with me in two important ways:

1. Please pray for me as I move into this next chapter of my ministry, and pray for our ministry together at Wesley Memorial. Ordination means I am "set apart" for certain aspects of ministry. However, through our baptism, we are all called to be about God's work for Christ's Church; and
2. Grab some popcorn and check out the live stream of the ordination ceremony on June 17 at 7:30 pm. Go to www.epaumc.org/2016-annual-conference/ and click on the live stream link to watch the video from your home computer.

Thank you for your support and encouragement!

~Jared

Admitted to the hospital?

Due to a new change with the medical records system at High Point Regional Hospital, Wesley Memorial is no longer able to easily obtain patient information. If you are admitted to the hospital, whether planned or due to emergency, the pastors will not know to visit unless you or a family member contact the church. Please notify the Front Desk at 336-884-2204 if you desire prayer or a pastoral visitation.

As summer approaches, some aspects of the music program begin to wind down. Many of our superb Choral Scholars will be traveling over the summer and some will eventually leave us all together. These fine young singers add much to worship each week, both at 8:30 and 11 am. From September-April they provided special music for every chapel service. We appreciate all that they do to enhance worship at Wesley Memorial and will miss them when they leave us permanently. Leaving us this year are Jesse Herndon, Teresa Bonavita and Jacob Cortes. We are grateful for all that they have meant to us and pray that God blesses them always. Starting in September, 2016, we will have the smallest group of scholars we have had in the last few years. Returning will be Walker Brown, Elizabeth Church, Emily Frye, Brittany Griffin, Michaela Kelly and Wesley McCleary-Small. We are delighted that Allison Chickering, a former scholar, will be returning to sing with us starting in July. The Choral Scholar program is designed to help them as much as they help us. We provide opportunities for them to learn sacred choral and solo music to which they would not be exposed in a university setting. This is music which will be of use to them the rest of their lives and careers. Many church members are not aware that this program has only recently become endowed. We now have a Wesley Memorial Choral Scholar Endowment Fund. If you would like to help us ensure that this program continues to bless worship and our Choral Scholars, please contact Anne Carroll or Harriet Mattes.

Summer MUSIC CAMP is the biggest thing on the music department radar! This camp is free and open to children who have completed 2-5 grades. Music Camp consists of four components: music, art, drama and liturgical dance. Art is being taught this year by the Theater Arts Guild and is a new component this summer. Camp runs from June 20-23, 9-12 noon and registration is now on the Wesley Memorial website. Register soon because we can only accept 50 children! The children will be using the arts to learn how to be God's messengers. Registration will end on June 3.

Thanks to all the singers and ringers who participated in Children's Music, Women's Choir, Men's Choir, Youth Handbells and Chancel Bells. We will all restart with new schedules in September. The Chancel Choir will be rehearsing all summer with the exception of June 1, July 6 and August 3. Please join us at 6:45 if only for the summer.

If you would like to remember or honor a loved one or friend by being an Anthem Angel, contact Anne Carroll for more information.

Mission Trip

The annual Mission Trip to Henderson Settlement in Frakes, KY will be July 17-23. This will be the 21st year that Wesley Memorial has sent a team to do repair and rehab work on homes in this rural Appalachian region. If you would be interested in being part of this Mission Team, please contact Dwight Steed at 336-882-4829. Space is limited so call Dwight today.

Jared's Ordination

We are excited and proud that Jared Stine will be ordained an Elder at the Eastern Pennsylvania Conference in Lancaster, PA on Friday, June 17, 2016. (EPC is the annual conference of which Jared has been a probationary member. Following his ordination, Jared will be transferred and become a full member of the Western North Carolina Conference – "he will be one of ours.") On Sunday, June 26, we will be celebrating Jared's ordination in all of our worship services.

Sermons Online

Each week an audio of the sermon preached at the 11 am service and the worship bulletins of all the services are posted online at <http://www.wesleymemorial.org/media.asp>. Unfortunately, copyright restrictions prohibit us from posting the musical parts of the worship service.

KEEP CALM and ENJOY VACATION!

It's that magical time of year again! Dreams of vacations at the beach, in the mountains, throughout the country or around the globe will soon come to fruition. Summer is the time to get away with your family and loved ones, to relax and unwind, and to enjoy some much deserved Sabbath rest. All of Wesley Memorial wishes you safe travels and looks forward to your return.

HOWEVER, please don't forget about us while you are away. Wesley Memorial continues to operate (at full speed) throughout the summer! Utility bills (some of our highest during the year) are paid, salaries are paid, apportionments (gifts which support conference, national, and international mission work) are paid, grants made to local mission sites are paid, lawn care and maintenance bills are paid – this list goes on.

If you made a financial pledge commitment to Wesley Memorial for 2016, we are counting on your continued support over the summer. There are several ways to keep your pledge payment current over the summer:

1. Place your gift in the offering plate on Sunday mornings;
2. Mail your gift to the church (1225 Chestnut Drive, High Point, NC, 27262);
3. Make an on line payment at wesleymemorial.org; OR
4. Contact Deanie Simmons about setting up a regular ACH draft from your checking or savings account (this way, you will always be up to date on your pledge payments). Deanie can be reached at dsimmons@wesleymemorial.org OR 336-812-4801.

This year, in addition to the worship and "holy conferencing" about the mission of the churches, Jared Stine will be transferred from Eastern Pennsylvania Conference and become a member of the WNCC. The Conference will end on Sunday, when Bishop Goodpaster will announce the clergy appointments for 2016-17 which will include the appointment of Erin Beall, Jared Stine, and Al Ward to Wesley Memorial.
