New Safety Measures: Coming in March

Last year, a group of “safety minded” church members along with staff and clergy gathered to determine ways to make our campus and community life more safe. Roy Shipman, Carolyn Uhlin, Meredith Morgan, JoAnn Clifton, Susan Kelley, Jared Stine, Cindy Dominick and Scott Howell met monthly. We had a wide variety of expertise, interest and opinions in the room. We explored ways to address medical emergencies on campus, surveillance, and security. We will begin implementing most of our suggested plans and responses during the first quarter of 2019.

Go Bags, new First Aid Kits, additional AEDs, and CPR/First Aid Training will help us be prepared when medical emergencies happen on campus. Go Bags will be placed near AEDs (automated external defibrillator). In the event of a medical emergency the Go Bag (containing emergency instructions, supplies, blood pressure cuff, stethoscope, water, and a snake bite kit) and the AED will allow us to monitor and comfort an individual until EMS arrives. In addition, we hope to have all of our staff along with many of our volunteers and church members trained to administer First Aid or CPR when necessary.

We are installing new surveillance cameras throughout our campus to monitor public entrances and activity in public areas. These cameras will allow staff members and security professionals to observe activities throughout the campus at any time, using a cell phone or desk top monitor. By restricting and monitoring access points, we will have more control of who enters our facilities.

Finally, we are going to begin providing armed security when WMS is in session, on Sunday mornings, and anytime more than 75 people are scheduled to be on campus. We will be employing off-duty High Point

Police officers. The idea of hiring armed officers is to encourage our members and friends to comply with United Methodist recommendations and Christian teaching and not bring their personal guns and weaponry on campus (even those with “conceal and carry” permits). In the remote event we experience an active shooter situation, first responders would have no way of distinguishing who is an authorized civilian with a weapon and who is unauthorized—increasing the likelihood of unnecessary injury or death.

Armed security will be the most expensive safety measure to be implemented with an estimated annual cost of $45,000. The Board of Trustees have authorized funds to cover this cost for one year (2019). This will allow us to determine if the safety value matches the cost. If so, we will incorporate this expenditure into our 2020 operating budget which is funded by our members’ annual pledge commitment. Our hope is that these measures will enhance our feeling of safety and security at Wesley Memorial.

sunday closings

During this time of year, we are often confounded by the dance of preparing for PREDICTED inclement weather AND responding to ACTUAL weather conditions. It is always clear, in hindsight, what the appropriate response should have been.

The challenge comes when making decisions about cancelling services and communicating these decisions in advance of a storm. There are many factors we consider: local and outlying road conditions, snow/ice accumulation, expected conditions at time of service (s), snow removal, etc.

Safety is always our first priority. If your local road conditions are unsafe OR if you are not comfortable getting out, then please stay home!

Most detailed information on Facebook, email and website. These media allow us to communicate more details about schedule changes and cancellations.

General information on FoxNews8 and WXII Channel12. These stations have limited “choices” in terms of messages to communicate.

Always an 11:00 worship service. Our maintenance staff and clergy are committed to meeting whoever gathers at 11:00 on Sunday mornings for a service of worship regardless of the weather situation. The location, duration, and content of this service will depend on the ACTUAL weather situation at 11:00. But should all power and access to electronic communication go away, there will always be a worship gathering at 11:00.

Cancellations and schedule changes that become necessary at times other than Sunday mornings, will be communicated as appropriate via Facebook, email, website, FoxNews8, and WXII Channel 12.

Caregivers Resources

Are you a caregiver for a friend or family member? Caring for a loved one is very rewarding and reflects the compassion God has for us and wants us to show one another. However, caregiving is challenging, too. Sometimes you need a friend whose been in your shoes – someone to offer support, a listening ear, or suggest strategies and ideas to help your loved one thrive. Wesley Memorial has a group of folks who've walked the caregiving journey, and they would love to support other caregivers in our congregation. Would you like to make a connection with one of them? Contact Jared Stine for more information.

Check out the Media Center for some brand new resources about caregiving offered by Senior Resources of Guilford County. All materials are free.

Pneumaphobia

I am not sure that “pneumaphobia” and “pneumphobic” are words. I could not find them in the dictionary. So, maybe I just made them up. “Pneuma” is the Greek word for “Spirit” and is used in the New Testament in reference to the Holy Spirit. “Phobos” is the Greek word for “fear”. So, pneumaphobia is fear of the Spirit. Someone who is pneumaphobic is a person who is afraid of the Spirit.

Are you pneumaphobic? I think that many United Methodists are pneumaphobic. It does not seem to be respectable to talk about the Holy Spirit. Some people will look incredulous if you speak about hearing from God as the Holy Spirit speaks. Do people really expect the Spirit to speak through scriptures or prayer or other people? People respect the Christian contemplative traditions but do so while rejecting the idea that prayer is dialogue and not just monologue. Anything that speaks of a direct relationship with the numinous, such as mysticism, raises eyebrows.

We are products of the Enlightenment and the scientific age. While both of these historic eras have brought great benefits such as democracy and technological advances, we have been left spiritually impoverished. People have been captured by a worldview that is one dimensional, only the physical. Members of American mainline churches particularly seem to avoid any talk of the work of the Spirit. There is a prejudice against spiritual experience. We seek spiritual renewal through new programs, new ministries, new music, new apps, new add campaigns, new demographic studies, etc. These are all good things, but shouldn't we start our search for spiritual renewal by seeking the Spirit who brings renewal?

Methodism was founded as a result of John and Charles Wesley's heart-warming experiences. That sounds like a mystical, spiritual experience to me. A strong emphasis on the person and work of Holy Spirit has been a part of our narrative from the beginning. In the era of the Wesley brothers, they were accused of being “enthusiasts” which was the eighteenth century term for charismatic or Pentecostal. The early Methodist sought to know God experientially. I don't think that there is much of a chance that modern United Methodists would be classified along with Wesley as “enthusiasts.” This is why we birthed other denominations such as the Church of the Nazarene, the Pentecostal and non-Pentecostal Church of God, and the Salvation Army. These are groups of people who left our denomination because we lost our fire, the fire of the Holy Spirit. While we need balance in our spiritual lives, balance means we need both the fire of the Holy Spirit and the fireplace (our structures and traditions). Maybe that is part of our problem. We know more about the cross than the flame. We need to be talking about what is necessary for God to restore the flame to our movement. We need to be praying for spiritual renewal in all our churches. We need to be thankful that the Holy Spirit is disturbing us at this point in our history. If we are faithful this might be the prelude of our renewal as a movement.

With Confidence in Christ,

Jeff

Thanks and praise to the Chancel Choir and all the Wesley Singers for their excellent attendance and hard work at our January 12 choir retreat. We had 39 singers working on the Rutter Requiem which the choir will present for Lenten worship on March 31 at 11 o'clock. The choir will be accompanied by organ, flute, oboe, cello and percussion. If you would like to sponsor one of these orchestra instruments in memory or in honor of a loved one, pastor, teacher, friend, contact Anne Carroll.

On Sunday February 3, our K-5 children will sing the Introit at 11 o'clock worship. Kindra Ingram will accompany them on flute. On February 17, the Chancel Choir will sing two anthems, both accompanied by organ, flute and cello. Thank you to the Anthem Angels who purchased these two anthems: Bill Anderson, in memory of Bob Rule and in honor of Bee Rule; and Lois and Wade Markham in loving memory of Leona Patterson Markham, Virginia Main Smith and Virginia Clegg Smith. Chancel Bells will ring "Redeemed, How I Love to Proclaim It" on February 24 which they purchased in honor of Anne Carroll and in memory of Jimmy Carroll.

JuBELLation Choir, consisting of students from 6th grade through college, will begin rehearsing again on February 17. They will ring for worship on March 17.

If you would like to be an Anthem Angel or sponsor an orchestra instrument for special music presentations, please contact Anne Carroll. Anthem Angels choose an anthem from a list compiled by the Director of Music in memory or honor of a loved one, teacher, pastor, friend, Sunday School teacher etc. An announcement will be placed in the bulletin on the Sunday that "your anthem" is sung or instrument is included in worship.

Finding the Baby Jesus

How precious it was for our students to experience the “Epiphany Walk”. Our preschoolers and Kindergarteners experienced a journey, as the wisemen experienced a journey, to find the Baby Jesus. After several stations, they found Mary holding a real baby (Mary Gail Jordan) tucked in a quiet, candlelit room. The collective sighs and gasps were beautiful. The children continue their understanding and learning of Jesus. They learn how He grew and what life was like in Bethlehem and Nazareth, where Jesus lived and grew up with his family.
